A N IDYLLIC ESCAPE

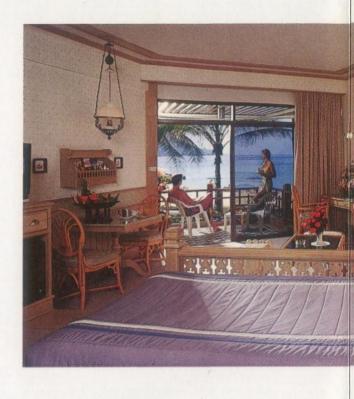

Phuket is Thailand's island jewel set in the sparkling waters of the Andaman Sea, just 75 minutes by air from Bangkok.

White sand beaches stretch like a string of pearls along its west coast and tucked away among the coconut and casuarina trees on Kata Noi Beach sits the Kata Thani Amari Resort. Being the only first class hotel on this beach, the resort offers the pleasures of sun, sea and sand in delightful seclusion.

D INING: EUROPEAN CHIC TO PIRATES' FARE

La Scala serves Italian food that will have your taste buds singing, in a setting that whispers romance. Or, try dining under the stars at the Pirate's Grill where steak and seafood are the order of the day. And for snacks, a lazy breakfast or lunch, the Chom Talay offers a relaxing terrace setting.

In the evenings, savour the intoxicating sunsets as you sip a long tropical cocktail at the beachside bar.

D O NOTHING; DO EVERYTHING

Soaking up the sun around the two beachside swimming pools is one of the Kata Thani Amari's most popular activities. That, and having a relaxing Thai massage on the hotel lawns.

However, for the more energetic guest,
there are tennis courts, sauna and a health club just an amble away. Scuba diving lessons in the hotel pool are also available.

Along Phuket's spectacular coastline you'll find everything from Sino-Portuguese architecture to 'Sea Gypsy' settlements to wildlife parks. And a day trip to Phang Nga Bay with its haunting seascapes is one of the world's great adventures.
